Rights of indigenous peoples: High-level plenary meeting of the General Assembly know as the World Conference on Indigenous Peoples [item 65]

[To allow for maximum participation within the limited time available, statements in the plenary meetings and the round tables and panel discussion will be limited to three minutes when made in a national capacity and five minutes when made on behalf of groups, on the understanding that that would not preclude the distribution of more extensive texts. The deadline for the inscription in the list of speakers for the round tables and the panel discussion has expired. As announced in the letter from the President of the General Assembly dated 18 August 2004, inscription in the list of speakers is for only one of the round tables or the panel discussion per delegation.

Conference Rooms 4, 5 and 6 (NLB), as well as mezzanine 2nd floor (NLB) will serve as overflow rooms.

Climate Summit 2014 [webcast]
(23 September 2014)

The Secretary-General will host the Climate Summit 2014 today, from 08:00 to 19:15. For the full programme, please click here (www.un.org/climatechange/summit/programme/).

The list of speakers is available at the General Assembly Affairs Branch (room S-3082) or click here. The list of speakers has also been sent by email and by facsimile directly to the permanent missions (Office of the Permanent Representative).

Delegations are kindly reminded that, to ensure that all speakers have the opportunity to address the plenaries, interventions must be concise and not exceed four minutes. Missions should be aware that, in fairness to all speakers, time limits will be strictly enforced and speakers will be interrupted should they exceed the time limit. Should speakers wish to present longer statements, missions are encouraged to send the full versions of their national announcement to ccst@un.org, for posting on the Climate Summit website at the conclusion of the Summit.

The Climate Summit will be climate neutral. With support from ICAO, UNFCCC and UNEP, efforts are being made to measure the climate footprint of the event, minimize its emissions where possible and offset what cannot be reduced with United Nations certified emission reductions. The Summit's climate footprint includes estimated emissions from the venue as well as from travel to New York by participants. Offsets come from the Clean Development Mechanism and will be purchased from the Adaptation Fund, thereby contributing to both mitigation and adaptation work in developing countries. For more information please click here.

As per A/INF/69/4, the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management will offer PaperSmart services. Delegations are asked to kindly send their statement to papersmart1@un.org two hours in advance of delivery with the subject line including meeting title, name of delegation and date of statement. A minimum of 30 copies of the text should also be submitted by a delegation representative to the receiving area at the documentation desk located in the conference room. The texts of the speeches will be accepted on the day they are to be given.

Prepared statements

Speakers in the Security Council are advised that providing in advance copies of prepared statements which they intend to read out in the Council greatly facilitates the work of the Secretariat by permitting a sufficient number of copies to be distributed to all meeting participants and by assisting interpreters, verbatim reporters and press officers in maintaining the quality of the product delivered. Both interpretations and verbatim records rely upon the statement actually delivered, but copies of texts help interpreters to correctly render details and nuances and help verbatim reporters to produce the written record more quickly. Speakers are therefore encouraged, whenever possible, to provide copies of their statements, as early as possible in advance of delivery, to the Conference Room Officer in the Chamber.

Delegations are kindly requested to make 40 copies for minimum distribution to Council members and relevant services, and 200 additional copies for general distribution in the Security Council Chamber.

Delegations wishing to make statements available for the media are kindly requested to deliver 50 copies to the Media Documents Centre (e-mail mdc@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-7166; room S-0220).
